

A Markov Process is a tuple  $(S, P)$ , where  $S$  is a the set of all states and  $P$  is a 2-dimensional transition matrix which stores the probability of reaching states  $S'$  given we are in state  $S$ :  $P_{ss'} = P[S_{t+1} = s' | S_t = s]$