

A Markov Process is a tuple $((S, P))$, where (S) is a the set of all states and (P) is a 2-dimensional transition matrix which stores the probability of reaching states (S') given we are in state (S) : $(P_{ss'}) = P[S_{t+1} = s' | S_t = s]$