

A Markov Process is a tuple (S, P) , where S is a the set of all states and P is a 2-dimensional transition matrix which stores the probability of reaching states S' given we are in state S : $P_{ss'} = P[S_{t+1} = s' | S_t = s]$