A Markov Process is a tuple (S,P), where S is a the set of all states and P is a 2-dimensional transition matrix which stores the probability of reaching states S' given we are in state S: $P_{ss'}=P[S_{t+1}=s'|S_t=s]$